

Mirsky Financial Management Corp.'s Privacy Policy

Mirsky Financial Management Corp. (Mirsky) provides excellence in the delivery of financial services to individuals and businesses. In providing these services, maintaining your privacy is of vital importance to us.

We do not sell your personal information to anyone

At Mirsky we do not sell any of our clients' nonpublic personal information. We value the trust you have placed in us and believe the undisclosed sharing of personal information with another individual or company would be a violation of this trust. We pledge to protect and safeguard the privacy of your information. If you terminate your relationship with Mirsky, your information will remain confidential.

Type of Information Collected

The personal information we collect about you is for the purpose of servicing your financial needs. This information is collected from applications or other forms supplied by us or other companies in order to provide these financial services, as well as communications with clients and client representatives. Mirsky does not disclose nonpublic personal information about you or our former clients to any nonaffiliated parties, except as permitted by law. This permitted disclosure may include providing information to companies that perform support services on your behalf or to other firms that assist us in providing you with products and services. Examples of these companies may include brokers, mutual funds, stock transfer agents, insurance providers and any others required by law.

Our Privacy Procedures

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to those employees, subcontractors and affiliates who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. As a condition of hiring, we require individuals to sign a non-disclosure agreement to prevent dissemination of your private information.

We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable regulations to safeguard your nonpublic personal and financial information. Mirsky retains the information collected for as long as required by law or regulation.

We will provide our privacy policy to our clients

On an annual basis, Mirsky will mail our clients a copy of our privacy policy. We value client relationships. Protecting your privacy is a core value for us in building a long-lasting and trusting relationship.
